

PRIMARY INDUSTRIES EDUCATION FOUNDATION NATIONAL WORKSHOP

Thursday 25 February – Friday 26 February 2010
University House, Australian National University, Canberra

PROGRAM

Aim

- To further establish and strengthen the PIEF network – linking industry, government and educators
- To confirm and communicate the value of PIEF
- To obtain feedback on the strategic direction of PIEF
- To develop future opportunities for action

THURSDAY 25 FEBRUARY 2010

8.30am Registration

9.00am Official Opening

The Hon Joel Fitzgibbon, MP, Member for Hunter representing The Hon Tony Burke, MP, Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry

Welcome

Anthony Hogan, Deputy Director, National Institute for Rural and Regional Australia

Introductions

Ralph Leutton, Facilitator

Background to Primary Industries Education Foundation and Introduction of Directors – Cameron Archer

Key Questions Facing the Board – Cameron Archer and Directors

10.15am MORNING TEA

10.45am The Development of the National Curriculum

Robert Randall, General Manager, Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority

12.30pm LUNCH

1.30pm Membership - Structure, Fees, Dilemmas

David Thomason and other Directors

2.15pm National Scoping Study Overview – Trends and Summary

Mal Brown, Scarlet Consulting

3.00pm AFTERNOON TEA

3.30pm Branding the Primary Industries Education Foundation

Mark Paterson, Managing Director/Johnny Warburton Creative Director, Currie Communications

5.00pm Close

7.00pm DINNER

FINAL

FRIDAY 26 FEBRUARY 2010

8.30am Review of Day 1 – Ralph Leutton

9.00am State Small Group Discussions and Feedback Session

- Consideration of the Scoping Study.
- What gaps are there in the Scoping Study?
- What opportunities does the Scoping Study present?

10.00am MORNING TEA

10.30am World Café

Forum discussing key issues/questions framed by Director's, Primary Industries Education Foundation

Rob Banfield, President of the Tasmanian Principal's Association, Member of the National Executive, The Australian Primary Principal's Association

Noon LUNCH

1.00pm Primary Industries Education Foundation Website Development - Intentions of Website

Identifying best practice and National opportunities

2.00pm Strategic Plan

Phil McCorkell, Quattro Consulting

3.00pm Primary Industries Education Foundation - Where to Next?

Evaluating our Success

Benchmark Project

Programs identified by stock take and state based discussion feedback in light of World Café membership conclusions

Teacher networks identified as essential contacts

3.30pm Open Forum and Wrap-up

4.30pm Close

<http://www.primaryindustrieseducation.com.au/>